

ACKNOWLEDGMENT OF CONDUCT RESULTING IN LOSS OF ACCEPTANCE OF RESPONSIBILITY

I, _____, have been informed that, if convicted of the charge(s) (defendant's name)
related to my case, certain conduct committed prior to the imposition of sentence in my case can result in a loss of acceptance of responsibility, pursuant to U.S.S.G. § 3E1.1. This conduct includes, but is not limited to, the following:

- a) commission of perjury before any judicial officer;
- b) commission of a new criminal offense;
- c) falsely denying or contesting conduct comprising the offense(s) of conviction;
- d) falsely denying or frivolously contesting relevant conduct;
- e) providing material false information to a probation officer during the pretrial or presentence process;
- f) failure to appear for all scheduled court proceedings;
- g) use of illegal substances while on pretrial release;
- h) absconding while on pretrial supervision; and
- i) failure to terminate or withdraw from criminal associations.
